

NEW JERSEY -OBITS

Herald News (West Paterson, NJ) - Sunday, December 24, 2006

HALEDON — Jean J. Pirard, 57, died Thursday. Born in Jumet, Belgium, he lived in Emerson before settling here. A graduate of Bergen Community College, he was a quality control technician for Custom Chemicals, Elmwood Park, before retiring. He previously worked for Lipton Foods, Englewood Cliffs. He was a parishioner of St. Mary Help of Christians R.C. Church, Paterson. He was preceded in death by his father, Marcel. Surviving are his wife, the former Christine Moos; two daughters, Cybil Oliver of Little Falls and Jeannette Pirard of Haledon; his mother, Raymonde (Allard) Pirard of New Windsor, N.Y.; a brother, Joel of New Windsor; and two grandchildren. Moore's Home for Funerals, 1591 Alps Road, Wayne, is in charge of arrangements.

Asbury Park Press – NJ (Jun/3/2010)

Marie Beauregard, 83, a long time resident of Oakhurst, passed away peacefully in her sleep at home on Saturday morning, May 29, 2010 after a long illness. Marie was born and raised in Belgium where she met and married her husband Ralph just after World War II. She has lived in New Jersey since the early 1960s where she spent many years employed by Macy's/Bambergers working happily in the China and Glassware Department. Marie was much loved and is already greatly missed by all her family including Sharon Williams who was her nurse and care in her final years, spending almost every day and night with her. Mrs. Beauregard was predeceased by her husband, Ralph E. Beauregard who died in 2007. She is survived by her daughter and son in-law, Chris and Don Collins who live in England and also by her son and daughter in-law, Ralph and Nadine Beauregard, currently residing in Florida.

Visitation will be Friday, June 4th, 10 am till the time of the service at 11 am, at the Woolley Funeral Home, 10 Morrell Street, Long Branch, New Jersey. Interment services will be held on Tuesday, June 7th at the New Jersey Veterans Cemetery, Jackson Twp. You may light a candle of condolence by visiting www.woolleyfh.com.

The Record and Herald News - (Oct/5/2011)

TOTOWA - Francois P. Waumans, 83, of Totowa, died Sept. 27, 2011. Born in Berchem, Belgium, Waumans was raised in Boom, Belgium. He emigrated to the United States in the 50s settling first in Paterson before moving to Clifton. He was always in the travel industry, first working with cruise lines for 20 years, later operating Enid's Travel and as owner of Scuba Tours, both formerly of Little Falls. Waumans was a parishioner of Holy Angels RC Church, Little Falls, where he was a member of the choir. He was a member of Our Lady of the Highway Council #3835, Knights of Columbus of Little Falls. He was predeceased by brothers Carl, Joseph and Paul Waumans. Survivors include his son Geoffrey F. Waumans and his wife Katherine of Clifton; granddaughter Victoria K. Waumans; brother Walter Waumans; and sister Marie Louise Waumans, both of Belgium. Arrangements: Bizub-Parker Funeral Home, Little Falls. Memorials: Little Sisters of the Poor, 140 Shepherd Lane, Totowa, NJ 07512.

Published in Passaic Valley Today on October 4, 2011