Germaine Marie Francoise Ista Koncurat (1913 – 2005)

Germaine I. Koncurat, age 92, passed away Thursday April 28, 2005 at the Wentworth at Draper where she had been living for the past four months. The cause of death was an aneurism. She was born March 21, 1913 in Seraing, Belgium[0] to Leopold Jean Joseph Ista and Francoise Josephine Rulkin. She was the oldest of three children (two girls and one boy.) In February, 1924, she, her brother and mother were baptized in the River Meuse. She lived both in Belgium[0] and in France. She married Marko (Marc) Koncurat on August 21, 1937. Together they struggled during World War II when bomb scares and air raids were all too common. Food was rationed and milk for babies was scarce. They survived the bombing of their home and many other hardships. Germaine had many church callings, which included Primary presidency in both the branch and district. She was a real leader and a great example to many children. She even conducted neighborhood "primary" meetings, which were attended by many. She had a natural talent for poetry. She has written many French poems which she published in her book of remembrance. She was an avid genealogist and has done extensive research including name extraction. She also served as a Cub Scout den mother. It had always been her dream to come to America and be sealed to her husband and to their four children in the temple of God. They also wanted to raise their children in an LDS environment. In May of 1953 after trying for about five years, they were finally able to obtain visas and come to America. They had sold most of their belongings and made the trip, which took about three weeks and included 14 days to cross the Atlantic and a 2,200-mile drive in a 1937 Pontiac with a former missionary couple. On March 4, 1954, her dream was finally realized. Germaine has lived both in Draper and in Sandy. She has been an inspiration to many as she has borne a strong testimony of Jesus Christ and of the restoration of the Gospel in the latter days. She is survived by her sister, Josette (Jean) Pirlot, Belgium[0]; a daughter, Emmanuella (Dennis) Overstreet, Draper, UT; Pierre (Sharon) Koncurat, Devon, PA; Joseph Koncurat, Kearns, UT; and Jacques (Monique) Koncurat, Sandy, UT; as well as 19 grandchildren, 37 great-grandchildren, and two, soon to be born, great great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Marc, her brother Armand Ista and a great-grandson Marcus Koncurat. Special thanks to the nurses and aides of The Wentworth at Draper and Hospice of Utah for their loving care. Funeral services will be Tuesday May 3, 2005; 11 a.m. at the Mt. Jordan 5th ward Chapel, 9331 South 300 East, Sandy UT. Friends and family may call Mon. 6-8 p.m. at the Larkin Sunset Gardens, 10600 South 1950 East, Sandy, UT (84092) and Tuesday 9:45 to 10:45 at the church. Deseret Morning News, Salt Lake City, UT - Sunday, July 2, 2006

Pierre VanDerHeyden "Bonpa" (1935 – 2006)

On June 30, 2006, a beautiful summer evening, Pierre VanDerHeyden completed his final wire connection, as he passed away from this world to a greater workshop. He will be missed by so many. Pierre was a man of great integrity and accomplishment. He loved to work, study and explore the mysteries of new technology and science. He was intensely proud of his family and their achievements, but always remained true to himself, never forgetting his humble roots. His needs were few and simple, his tools, good food, and a bottle of chardonnay. Pierre was born June 26, 1935 in Gentbrugge, Belgium[0], second son of Engelbert and Elisa Van Lierde-VanDerHeyden. Even as a child he had a curious mind and exhibited great intelligence. He graduated from Ghent City College of Technology and fulfilled his patriotic duty in the army attaining the rank of sergeant. He was offered a civil commission post in the Belgian Congo in 1957, but civil war broke out interrupting his aspirations. Instead he followed his childhood sweetheart to the United States. Pierre married Maria Donkhorst in 1958 and together they forged a lifetime partnership encompassing four children, eight grandchildren, sharing a passion for work, business and community interests. Pierre had a tremendous work ethic. In 1960 he joined the IBEW Joint Apprenticeship Training program and went to work for Wasatch Electric as an inside wireman. That association lasted for more than 35 years, until his retirement. A hard worker, he rose through the ranks eventually becoming Project Manager, supervising the electrical construction of many of Salt Lake's high-rise office buildings, hospitals, malls, and airport. Contractors and crews all benefited from Pierre's skills and attention to details. A lifetime member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Pierre strongly believed in the principles of good training, quality of work and loyalty to the industry. He performed his duties with great responsibility, always putting the safety of his men above all else and never backing away from a challenge. Under the umbrella of the JATC, he taught the elements of electrical construction to hundreds of apprentices for 29 years, never missing a class. Students viewed him as a tough taskmaster but one who taught them how to think and how to solve problems. Pierre was also an astute reader who taught himself business and economic principles and in later life created a very successful business portfolio. As a property owner he was a caring landlord who personally looked after his many tenants and their needs. Pierre enjoyed life in all its diversity. Besides being a man of the trades he served on many boards and committees, most notably his credit union, serving as Chairman of the Supervisory Committee; five years as a member of the Murray Planning and Zoning Committee; and a three-year term on the Federal Grand Jury, becoming its foreman. In addition, he promoted global understanding by hosting students, teachers and businessmen from all over the world through Rotary and AFS programs. He participated in Friendship Force of Utah as a goodwill ambassador. Pierre had a great love for classical music and the performing arts and was a frequent patron of both the opera and the symphony. He lived the American dream and still had many unfinished projects when Multiple Myeloma suddenly struck on Memorial Day. Pierre is survived by Maria, his wife of 48 years; children, Nicole (Dwight), Eric (Sarah), Tony and Brian (Robyn); grandchildren, Ben, Miranda, Madelaine, Melissa, Griffin, Mason, Jack and Carson; one brother, Norbert (Madeleine); and one sister, Nicole (Joseph) in Belgium[0]. He was preceded in death by his parents; and older brother, Etienne. The family also extends their heartfelt appreciation to the staff and angels at the Oncology Departments at Dixie Medical Center, LDS Hospital and IHC Hospice Care Services and special thanks to Dr. Sebastien Kairouz, Dr. Clyde Ford, and their respective staffs. Friends are invited to attend a memorial service for Pierre Wednesday, July 5, 2006, 7:30 p.m., preceded by a viewing from 5:30-7 p.m. Both services will be held at Jenkins-Soffe Mortuary, 4760 South State, Murray. The family requests no flowers, but appreciate donations of blood at your nearest hospital or Red Cross facility. Online condolences at www.jenkins-soffe.com

Roger L. Dock (2/7/1921 - 11/13/2006) Our father had a full and wonderful life and has finally decided to go home. His parents and sweethearts were waiting for him. He anticipated a glorious reunion. He left behind three children, four stepchildren, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He was born in Belgium[0] and heard the calling of the LDS church. He became the French translator for his church and joined the Tabernacle Choir. He had many other callings and went on two missions with his first wife. A faithful believer to the end of his life, he believed that he was converting his hospice workers. We would like to thank the IHC Hospice workers that attended to Dad in his last days, and also to the Home Teachers who came every month, and then every week, that were a great link to his faith. You made our way much smoother. A private family graveside service will be held on Thursday. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Roger's name to the Alzheimer Association. From early childhood and throughout his life, Richard was inventive, imaginative, skilled at many languages, and took great pleasure in using his keen mind to explore new ideas and all life has to offer. Richard served his country in the Belgian Army's Second Engineers Corps during the four-year German occupation of Western Europe during World War II. Not wanting to be separated, he and his sweetheart, Maria Augustina Vercammen, married on April 12, 1941. The young couple bravely overcame fears of deportation, military oppression, and starvation through their perseverance, love for each other, and a belief in the future. Upon the arrival of the Allied Armies in June 1944, Richard volunteered as a guide and interpreter with a British supply company along the road to victory. Richard and Maria immigrated to the U.S. in June 1947 and settled in San Francisco, CA, where Richard furthered his education and worked for more than 18 years with Metal & Thermit Corp. After joining the management of Proler Steel Corp. (later Proler Int'l. Corp.), he and Maria moved to Utah in 1966 where Richard supervised the development of a new plant in Copperton. They have continued to make Utah their home ever since. Richard and Maria always appreciated living in America and valued their American citizenship. After retirement, the couple traveled throughout their adopted country and enjoyed many cruises on the open seas they both loved. Richard and Maria have been members of the University of Utah Health Sciences Council and the John R. Park Society. As Benefactors of the U's Health Sciences Center, their generosity will assist many students for generations to come.
